Attn: RTS-IB

Dear [redacted]

Enclosed for your coordination is another document found in CIA files as a result of the CBS discovery motion. This is an Air Force special report entitled, "Viet Cong Guerrilla and Sabotage Threat to USAF Bases in South Vietnam" prepared by the Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) in December 1966. We originally sent the document to AFOSI for review and they had no objection to declassifying it but recommended that we refer it to your Agency for declassification review. AFOSI also marked those portions in which they believe are other DOD equities (DIA, JCS, AF Security Police).

We request you review this document for DIA and all other DOD equities, conducting any coordination you believe is necessary.

We appreciate your help in this matter; if you have any questions, please contact [redacted] of my staff on [redacted], or secure line [redacted]

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Chief, Classification Review Division
Office of Information Services
Directorate of Administration

1. Reference your letter of 14 July 1983 regarding the CBS Discovery motion.

2. The Air Force Office of Special Investigation (AFOSI) defers to your classification determination of the attached document. However, we feel portions should be referred to other Federal agencies for declassification review. The specific areas are:

a. Pages 1, 2, 7, 12 and 26: The data regarding Viet Cong strength figures are attributed to a Defense Intelligence Agency/Joint Chiefs of Staff reappraisal of Order of Battle holdings.

b. Pages 5-11: The Defense Intelligence Agency should review the sections pertaining to North Vietnamese Intelligence Service.

c. Pages 26, 27 and 28: We recommend the U.S. Air Force Security Police review the sections which pertain to base security measures and responsibility in South Viet Nam during the years of conflict. The addresses for the agencies concerned are as follows:

Defense Intelligence Agency
Attn: RDS-3A
Washington, DC 20301

Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff
Legal and Legislative Office
The Pentagon, Room 2E 841
Washington DC 20301

HQ USAF/IGS
Washington DC 20330

3. The remaining portions of the attached documents have been declassified and marked accordingly.

Atch Nr 1 is (are) withdrawn not attached, the classification of
